Princess Ena Becomes Bride of Spanish King.

Ceremony Takes Place At High Noon in the Little Church of San Geranimo.

STORY OF AN ASSASSIN'S PLOT

Madrid, May 31.—A bomb was thrown at King Alfonso and Queen Ena but both escaped unharmed.

Madrid, May 31.—King Alfonso, of Spain, and Princess Ena, of Battenberg, niece of King Edward of England, were married at noon today in the little church of San Geranimo in the presence of a distinguished company of about 1,000 persons, including special ambassadors from the chief countries of the world.

The ceremony was performed by Cardinal Sancho, Catholic prelate of Spain, assisted by a number of high prelates. The city is beautifully decorated in honor of the occasion. The streets are lined with people, who gave the bridal couple a royal welcome as they drove to and from the church.

The church was magnificently decorated, the beautifully sculptured statuary at the altar being draped with white, gold and red banners, showing the Spanish colors hung from brilliantly lighted chandeliers. The wedding procession was quickly formed. The ceremony was performed according to the ritual of the Catholic church.

Anarchist Plot.

London, May 31.—A plot to assassinate King Alfonso on his wedding day has been discovered in London, according to an unconvincing story published by the Evening Standard this afternoon. Fifty anarchists of England, France and Spain, who are said to be concerned in the conspiracy, are alleged to be on their way to Madrid with the intention of carrying out the attempt as the king is leaving the church.

The plan is said to have been hatched in Spain and London, but it is added that the police got wind of the affair, and will take all the precautions necessary to protect the king. The project, it is asserted, included a revolution after the assassination, with the view to overthrowing the monarchy. The Evening Standard further asserts that Spanish officers are implicated in the plot.

LET'S GO TO WORK SAYS MR. SHONT

Favors Lock Type Canal For Many Reasons.

Can Be Constructed More Cheaply and Expeditiously and Is a Better Plan.

MAKES ADDRESS IN ATLANTA

Atlanta, Ga., May 31.—Theodore Shonts, chairman of the Panama Canal commission was the guest today of Atlanta friends and his presence in Atlanta was made the occasion for several entertainments and public functions at which he met a large number of business and professional men and delivered an address.

In the course of his speech Shonts spoke in favor of a lock canal and said:

"I am not surprised European countries are indifferent to the early completion of this canal, I am not surprised that they are indifferent as to how much this canal may cost our government, I am not surprised that they can view calmly an indefinite postponement of the opening of this great waterway. They are neither paying the bills nor will their commerce and industries suffer by waiting for the completion of this undertaking. But I am surprised that those who are supposed to represent the best interests of the American people should try to throw obstacles in the way of realizing the benefit of this work. When we can get a better canal for less money and receive the benefit ourselves why wait, why make it an heritage to our children, with the possibility of their being deprived of its benefits through some unforeseen contingency."

At Paducah on the return trip Hunt and Cameron wanted money due them for services. They were informed they would have to accompany boat to Louisville before they would be paid. The libel proceeding followed. The captain of the Joe B. Williams wanted a precedent set and Judge Evans' decision is of interest to all steamboatmen.

The meeting thereupon decided to continue the douma's sittings for purpose of the abolition of capital punishment.

St. Petersburg, May 31.—Rumors of a shift in the machinery were everywhere current last night. It was persistently reported here and at Moscow, that former Finance Minister Shipoff has received an urgent summons to Peterhof to confer with Emperor Nicholas, presumably with regard to the formation of a new cabinet, although he has frequently expressed his unwillingness to take over the premiership.

In the meanwhile the present ministry is calmly going ahead with its agrarian program which it hopes to submit to the lower house within a fortnight, and contrary to expectation, to provide for the distribution of millions of acres of crown lands in European Russia.

The government's policy is founded on the expectation that enough land can be obtained by the division of the crown lands, the clearing of a portion of the imperial forests, an the voluntary sale of private estates, to meet the land hunger of the peasants without the necessity of forced expropriation.

LAWS FOR CITIES OF SECOND CLASS

Become Effective Soon—Two Officials Are Anxious.

City Clerk Bailey Wants an Assistant and Chief Collins Wants Detectives.

BUT, WILL THEY GET THEM?

Henry Bailey, city clerk, and James Collins, chief of police, are vitally interested in the month of June and are anxious for the eleven of that month to roll around. It may mean a great deal and it may mean the continuation of present conditions, and just what is going to happen is a puzzle which both officials are trying hard to work out ahead of time.

On June 11 the laws making it possible for cities of the second class to create the office of assistant city clerk and also fixing the minimum police force at 30 men, will be effective. The police commissioners may or may not increase the force and the municipal boards may or may not give City Clerk Bailey an assistant. Just what is to be done in the matter is bothering both men.

"The law reads that the council may give me an assistant," Clerk Bailey stated, "but whether the boards will do it or not remains to be seen. I expect to ask for one and hope I am given one. All other cities of Paducah's size and class support several clerks and assistants to the clerk and I feel that I should have the same help."

In regard to the police matter Chief Collins does not believe that the commissioners will put on any more men than the old force numbers.

"I do not believe, from what I can hear and see that the commissioners intend to put on any more men," Chief Collins declared, "but I hope the council and commissioners will 'get together' and put on detectives. There have been more robberies during the last two months than we have had in the last two years all told, I will venture to say, and we need the services of plain clothes men. I have studied the matter and think the results of the cut in the force is example enough I believe that the commissioners will permit the force to remain as it is, but hope arrangements for detectives will be made."

The appropriation made this year is not sufficient to care for an additional expense heaped on by the increase of police force, and this is a very good argument against an increased force. The matter is one which is drawing attention, however, and the results will be watched with interest.

The date was decided on at a meeting of the directors Wednesday afternoon at the Commercial club and preparations were made for actively going ahead with the plans for the big show. It is intended that this shall be the finest exhibition of horse flesh ever held in Western Kentucky and prizes commensurate with the class of animals the directors expect to attract to the city will be offered.

What these prizes will be is left to the program committee, which was appointed at the meeting. The committee is composed of George Goodman, R. B. Phillips and Virgil Sherrill. The judges will be experts from Eastern Kentucky, probably. At least, they will be chosen from places so far distant that they cannot be accused of favoritism. It was decided not to hold races this year.

HORRIBLE DEATH OF DAVID HELLER

Epileptic Falls From Second Story Porch to Pavement.

Formerly Lived Near Paducah, but Has Been Inmate of Home for Aged Poor.

BODY WILL BE BROUGHT HERE

Louisville, May 31.—David Heller, 73 years old, formerly a resident of Paducah, suffered frightful injuries which caused instant death, in a fall from the second story porch at the Home of the Aged Poor, Tenth and Magazine streets, this morning. His neck was broken, his skull fractured and both legs crushed. The accident was due to the fact that Heller was standing too near the edge of the portico, when stricken with an epileptic fit, to which he was subject.

Coroner Kelly viewed the body and rendered a verdict of accidental death. There is no doubt that it was an accident. The portico is shaded by trees and used during the warmer part of the day by the inmates. Heller was seated there this morning conversing with friends and rose to descend the flight of steps leading to the yard, when he was stricken and fell over the railing.

The inmates who witnessed it were too completely horrified to go to his assistance. When two nurses rushed to his assistance he was breathing his last. The body was taken to L. D. Bax's undertaking establishment, 700 East Chestnut street and prepared for shipment to Paducah, where the burial will take place.

Heller had been an inmate of the home for about four years. He was formerly a farmer and owned a small place just outside of Paducah. His wife, who survives him, has been at the institution attending him since he was admitted as a patient.

MEMBERS ARRESTED.

Sergeant-at-Arms Captures Congressmen

Washington, May 31.—An experience meeting was held today in the house of representatives. It grew out of arrests made by sergeants-at-arms and his officers and hauling members before the bar of the house in order to complete a quorum under a call of the house last evening.

Mr. Glines, of Tennessee, stated that he had left the house at 6 o'clock upon a mission of humanity, to inquire after a sick brother. He had gone to his house and was notified that a "call of the house" was on. He went into the case at his hotel and saw a number of members there and notified them that there was a call for a quorum. He responded with others and was overtaken by an officer of the house who placed him under arrest and he was presented to the bar of the house.

Lady Nicotine is Tabooed From Office in Presbyterian Church.

Richmond, Ind., May 31.—The first sensational procedure of the entire session of the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church came today when it was announced that the assembly, by a decisive vote, emphatically turned down the recommendation of the committee on nominations, that the Rev. John A. Burnett, of Monmouth, Ill., should be made general secretary of the Young People's society, on the ground that the Rev. Mr. Burnett is a user of tobacco. The assembly took the view that he was not a proper man to be at the head of this organization of young people, and substituted the name of the Rev. W. Lawrence, of Bellevue, Ill.
